Highland Drive/Fort Union intersection.

Mr. Dale Giles wanted to solicit the Council's help in getting the County to review the plans for the intersection at Highland Drive and Fort Union.

Upon motion made by Sheryl Ivey, seconded by Pat Warner, amended by Paul Childs and passed unanimously, it was RESOLVED, to write a letter to Salt Lake County Public Works inviting someone to attend the November meeting so that the citizens might express their concerns.

ACCT Report

Sheryl Ivey reported that the September meeting was the annual meeting and was very successful. The Salt Lake County Council was in attendance. The ACCT representatives were able to present a list of issues to the Council. The Council asked them to identify 2 or 3 high priority issues that should be addressed in the legislature. Due to the success of this meeting it was decided to make it a quarterly instead of annual event.

The two issues identified in the meeting were:

1. The cost of municipal services in the Canyons to be borne by all citizens
2. Franchise Tax at County Level.

Smiths Food Stores Gas Island and Canopy 7800 South 3500 East

This item was received from the County after the deadline for the agenda. As so many residents were present to address the issue it was agreed to hear the arguments for and against this issue. Gordon will attend the planning meeting next Tuesday and request a continuance for one month. The item will be heard officially next month in the Cottonwood Heights Council meeting.

In the meantime representatives from Smith's suggested that a private meeting be held with the neighbors to see if some of the issues can be resolved.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Next meeting will be November 7, 2001 at 6:30 p.m.
