

DEATH: IRVIN W. TAYLOR

Published: July 6, 1991 12:00 am

Beloved husband, father and grandfather, Irvin W. Taylor, 79, passed away July 4, 1991 following a heart attack.

Born July 16, 1911, Salt Lake City, to Ezra O. and Ida W. Taylor. Married Jean Bowthorpe Meyer, June 27, 1956. Member of the LDS Church. Graduate of LDS High School. He retired after 30 years in the U.S. Postal Service. World War II Veteran, having served in the Army of Occupation on the European Front. Master chess player and former Utah State Chess Champion. Survived by wife, Jean; daughter, Elizabeth Provost, granddaughters, Lisa and Falene; brother, Ezra W. Taylor; sisters, Gay Taylor and Patricia T. Kerr, all of Salt Lake City. Preceded in death by son, John Taylor.

Funeral services will be held Monday, July 8, 1991 at 12 noon at the Cannon Mortuary, 2460 East 7600 South. Friends may call at the Cannon Mortuary, Sunday from 6-8 p.m. and the morning of the service from 10:45-11:45 a.m. Interment: Veterans Memorial Park.