Joan welcomed those present at the meeting and invited them to come and join the council at the table.

Margaret will write a thank you note to the Bonneville School students who helped with the vote counting.

Sheriff's Report

Deputy Scott Hansen gave the sheriff report. He talked about the mobile watch as opposed to neighborhood watch. He asked for people interested to contact him and he would set them up.

Citizens asked questions – why are there cars parked on 3000 East just South of the Corporate Center entrance? What is being done for the parking problems at Hog Wallow? And Canyon Inn? Can the barricades be moved back at Canyon Inn? Deputy Hansen will review these questions.

The report back on the property at approx, 2250 East 7000 South – ski shop, indicates that there is not a problem that Salt Lake County can address.

Incorporation

Joan Carman, who is leaving the council, is going to devote her time to promoting this issue. Interested parties contact Joan.

ACCT report

Captain Mike White of the Fire Department was present to address the issue of forming a special district for the fire department.

The Holladay Lion's Pool will be dedicated on December 15th at noon. Everyone is invited to attend.

Any Other Business

Jeff Moore asked that we pay $35.00 to re-register the web name,

Upon motion made by Brett Besser, seconded by Cathy Trane and passed unanimously, it was RESOLVED, to approve this expenditure.

Mr. Schmidt reported that the trailer is still on the Calvary Chapel site. Margaret to write another letter to Curtis Woodward at Salt Lake County Developmental Services,

Property at 6778 South 2300 East. This is the Jim Jones property which requested a general plan amendment last May in order to put up storage units. There was a petition from the neighbors and this application was denied. There is now someone living in the building. Margaret to write to Salt Lake County and ask for an update on the status of this property and request a response prior to the next meeting.

The meeting was adjourned at 8 p.m.

Next meeting will be January 3, 2001 at 6:30 p.m. in Butler Middle School.
